MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report - Key West Bureau - October 1981

I. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. The most important item covered by the bureau during the month was the speech delivered by Fidel Castro at the closing session of the Cuban CDR Congress. In this lengthy speech, Castro strongly attacked the U.S. administration for allegedly planning aggression against Cuba. The speech, processing of which was shared with Panama Bureau, has generated many subsequent meetings and expressions of support for Castro's stand.

2. Havana television has begun a new morning program "Revista de la Manana" which has been placed on coverage. The cast, some 2 hours 30 minutes long, contains four newscasts and exclusive interviews. Recently, FMLN leader Nadia Palacios and former CIA employee Philip Agee have been subjects of interviews.
